ABOUT:

Chef Nana is a 5 star cook who was born in East LA with an ethnic background from Roswell, New Mexico and Billy Nazario San Juan, Puerto Rico. She got her name "Chef Nana" from her grandmother who she grew up hearing cooking stories from. Chef Nana cooks by scratch in a kitchen that uses REAL INGREDIENTS such as DAIRY, FATS, NUTS, and GRAINS. All imported and local fresh ingredients and Chile's.

Chef Nana and her husband have been in real estate for the last 26 years, however, being a cook is her first love. She loves to laugh out loud, music and dancing, reading, being silly with her seven children. She also loves to encourage women to feel radiant and beautiful.

Her main ingredient is love and cooking is her love language.
