ABOUT:

Chef Steven Moore's career began after graduating from the Riverside Culinary Academy at the age of 21. Shortly after graduating he proceeded to Florence, Italy for three months to cook with multiple Executive Chefs to enhance his own creative techniques and skills. After returning home, Chef Steven was hired to cook at the Coachella Music Festival, which is one of the biggest music festivals held in California.

In 2015, he opened his own Catering Business where he showed off many of his culinary techniques leading to the opening of his second business, "TheTrendy Chef" where he specializes in the latest trendy food.
